Certificate course on “Spoken Sanskrit”

Offered by Sanskrit Study Cell
Goalpara College

One of the oldest and classical languages, Sanskrit is the sacred language of Hinduism. Considered a connecting language in ancient and medieval South Asia, Sanskrit is referred to as God’s language by most scholars. Today, there are very few people who speak Sanskrit natively. In view of this, Sanskrit study cell of Goalpara College started offering certificate course on Spoken Sanskrit in every semester. Till completion summer semester of 2019-2020, the study cell has successfully completed Six numbers of certificate course. However due to covid situation, the course could not be offered from autumn semester of 2020-2021, but we are planning to start it again the same form 2022-2023.

Course module and Learning Objective(s):

At the completion of the program of study, students will be able to achieve proficiency in the Sanskrit language across the following six dimensions:

- (a) Reading (i.e., alphabets, words, and sentences); Pathanam
 - (b) Writing (Forming comprehensible sentences and paragraphs); Lekhanam
 - (c) Listening (Comprehending Sanskrit speech when someone else is speaking); Shravanam
 - (d) Conversing (Being able to speak grammatically accurate Sanskrit in a way that others can comprehend the meaning); Sambhashanam
 - (e) Grammar (The structure and technology of the language); Vyakaranam,
- and
- (f) Comprehension (Being able to engage with complex sentences in speaking and discover their meanings without assistance. Avagamanam
