Brief report

Department of History organized a certificate course to find out prospects of Historical Tourism in North East India from 22nd December 2021 to 27th December 2021. The program was inaugurated by Dr. Subhash Barman, Principal, Goalpara College. Yashwanta Ray, HoD, department of history presided over the program. Dr. D C Baruah, Coordinator IQAC, Dr. Ranjit Choudhury, HoD, Department of Physics, Dr. H K Kalita, HoD, Department of Philosophy and Dr. S K Mishra, Associate professor, Department of English was also present in the program.

Course Objective:

The North-east region of India has a rich cultural heritage and is home to diverse landscapes, including hills, mountains, and valleys. The region has been relatively unexplored, but with the recent surge in tourism, more people are discovering the beauty and charm of the Northeast. With splendid natural sites, North east also has numbers of historical sites such as, Talatal Ghar, Rang ghar, different old temples including Kamkhya temple, various battle sites such as, Saraighat where mighty Ahom kingdom defeated Mughal, Sites of Battle: Imphal, large numbers of Monastery, Ujjayanti palace etc. to name a few. To flourish tourism in this region, these sites needed to bring to the notice of the world. In the same time local peoples are also needed to train up to host those tourists. In this scenario, department of History organized the certificate course to make students aware of the prospects of Historical Tourism in North East India.

Course Outcome:

After the completion of the course, Students will be able to

1. Explain Tourism in North East India with special reference to the historical monuments, cultural and ecological elements and places of the north east India country as tourist and heritage sites of the nation.
2. They will be able to relate to the growing vocation of tourism as an industry and the applicability of historical knowledge for its growth.
