Committee, and Monitoring Committee. The activities of these committees along with their reports have to be periodically placed in Governing Body. Both internal and external audit is mandatorily done in transparent manner.

1. The activities planned by various departments, committees, individual staff members have to submit the proposals to the college internal quality assurance cell (IQAC) which will monitor the need, sanction and execution of such proposals. After analyzing the need of activity proposals, the IQAC would either recommend sanction or rejection of activity proposals to the Academic Council which is chaired by the principal for final decision.
2. The college encourages each Department of the institution to find support from alumni, philanthropists towards meeting expenses for organization of seminar, workshop and other academic activities.
3. While organizing any event, activity or outreach program, active involvement of Alumni Association and PTA is highly recommended.
4. The IQAC is expected to study and recommend various ways to channelize funds for the development of the institution.
5. The new construction and maintenance works are to be sanctioned only after conducting a feasibility study under the guidance of Academic Council and Construction Committee.
6. All faculty members are encouraged to apply and avail themselves of different research project funds, incentives, aids which is being offered by various state and central government agencies.
